

THIRD YEAR.

MAYSVILLE, KY., MONDAY, APRIL 16, 1894.

ONE CENT.

OUR TRAMP ABOUT THE CITY.
IT'S SO IF IT'S IN THE LEDGER.

MAYSVILLE WEATHER.

What We May Expect For The Next Twenty-Four Hours.

THE LEDGER'S WEATHER SIGNALS.
With streamer—RAIN.
Blue—RAIN or SNOW.
With black above—WILL WARMER GROW.
If black's beneath—COLDER! will be!
Unless black's shown—no change we'll see.
The above forecasts are made for a period of thirty-six hours, ending at 5 o'clock to-morrow evening.

WE'LL BE HAPPY THEN.
When it rains because we want it to—
Gets warm because we like it—
When we order all our business—
Tell the lightning where to strike,
The world will be a jolly world
To all the maids and men;
With life's song the whole day long,
And we'll be happy then!
When crops grow of their own accord,
Without a plow or hoe;
When bill collectors come to bring
The lengthy bills we owe,
The world will be a jolly world
To all the maids and men;
And birds will sing and cash will ring,
And we'll be happy then!

MR. RUMBAUGH is a Covington builder and struck the son of Mr. Greeley in the eye for fooling around a building he was putting up. It was a glass eye that he hit, and it was broken by the blow and badly lacerated the optic cavity. In a suit the jury gave Greeley $300 damages.
It is worth remembering. Messrs.
John T. Martin & Co., the reliable clothing, have purchased a liberal number of tickets on the guessing contest at Zanesville, O., when $5,000 will be distributed among the lucky guessers. With every cash purchase of $1 Messrs. John T. Martin & Co. give one ticket. They cost you nothing and you buy goods better
and cheaper than elsewhere.

JOHN W. DILLON, recently injured by the C. and O. at Cattletown, is all right again.

F. W. STRODE and Mrs. Julia Nash
were married a few days ago at Esculapia Springs.

The C. and O. will in future use no cars that are not provided with the Jannet couple.

LOUISA has lowered the wholesale liquor license to $50 per year, and several houses will open up after May 1st.

R. M. MALONE of Lewisburg left a few days ago for a sojourn at Asheville, N.
C., for the benefit of his health.

Last year the railroads of this country paid $52,550,089 in interest on their

The funeral of Mrs. Thomas Guylouff occurred from St. Patrick's Church at 10 o'clock this morning, with high mass.
Interment at Washington.

In the absence of Secretary M. C.
Russell, Chris D. Russell held down the books of the Mason County Building Association Saturday night.

Miss EDNA DEXTER, aged 21, daughter of a prominent farmer of Montgomery county, killed herself with strychnine.
No cause is known for the suicide.

JOHN KELLY of Greenup has filed a suit in the United States Court against the Ironton Exchange Bank to recover $1,026.43 deposited therein prior to its closing last June.

The Supreme Court of Ohio has again come down heavy on boycotters, allowing damages in one case of $8,000 and in another of $2,550 against Bricklayers'
Union No. 1 of Cincinnati.

AMONG those who attended the top at the opening of the Hotel Veneta at Ashland was Miss Ethelene Wall of this city, who wore a gown of white mousseline de soie over satin, trimmed in knots of satin ribbon.

The Market National Bank at Cincinnati
has filed suit in attachment against Alex. Paris for recovery of $600 paid to him on Charles Ryan's forged check.
This looks like the bank had withdrawn its "bluff" to hold Mr. Ryan responsible.

At Louisville the jury in the case of the Rev. George Dennis against the Pennsylvania Railroad Company for $25,000
damages found a verdict for the plaintiff, giving him $5,000. Mr. Dennis lost both legs and one arm by being run over by a train.

A. R. Glascock.

Said a business man: "A few days ago
a paper dollar was started in circulation.
It had attached a piece of paper, requesting everybody who got it to sign their names, and then turn the money out as quickly as possible, with a view of having it come back from whence it started. In twenty days the dollar came back, and the names showed that sixty persons had had it in that time."

The Washington correspondent of The Courier-Journal says that Colonel Will S.
Hays had never written that campaign song, "Cleveland is the Man," he might have been appointed Supervising Inspector instead of Capt. Thompson. In the way of indorsement for the position Hays had a thousand of the finest in the world, and the successful man only a brief mention of his name. This is the way President Cleveland sometimes does things.

WILLIAM PERRY, aged 18, was fatally injured by falling on a circular saw near Portsmouth.

The total assessment at Lexington this year is $14,975,305, an increase of $927,570
compared with 1893.

TIMOTHY KILTY and Miss Idona Davis
of Lewis county will be married tomorrow morning at St. Patrick's Church.

MISS DAY and Miss Helm, while out riding yesterday afternoon, were thrown from a buggy and slightly bruised.

JOSEPH A. WALTON has resigned as Chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee of Bracken. His place has not yet been filled.

At the last weekly meet of the Danville Gun Club Dr. H. M. Marsh presented the champion shot. Only four out of twenty-five birds escaped him.

THERE will be prayer-meeting at Mitchell's Chapel tomorrow evening, class meeting Friday evening and preaching Sunday morning and evening, when candidates for membership will be received.

WHENEVER before did a whole week
elapse without a single arrest being made in Mayville? Yet that is the record of last week. Did the Mife meetings have anything to do with the moral revolution?
Let the doubting Thomases answer.

The Department of Agriculture gives the condition of wheat on the first day of April as 86.7 per cent. for the entire country, while at the same date last year it was only 77.4. This confirms that the wheat crop of the country was not materially damaged by the March freeze.

WALTER WILLIAMS, aged 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. P. Williams, died yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock. He had been ill for some time. The funeral will take place tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock
from the residence, Second and Union streets, with services by the Rev. E. B.
Coke.

The suit of Greenup county against the
C. and O. for the reduction of ferry rates between Portsmouth and South Portsmouth was decided in favor of the railroad by Judge Harbison. And almost immediately after the decision was rendered the railroad company voluntarily
reduced the rates.

BREAKS THE RECORD.

Miss Bessie Wadsworth Sends 130-
000 Stamps For Miss Rose.

People read THE LEDGER!
No better proof of this can be given than is found in the numerous and liberal contributions of postage stamps sent in to this office in response to the appeal in behalf of Miss Dollie Rose of Manchester.

But liberal as have been the responses
it has remained for Miss Bessie Wadsworth of this city to surpass all others in an elaborate manner. He said in part:
"The suggestion that the tariff question
should be taken out of politics is gratefully received by every man who is in touch with our industrial conditions, and is conscious of the dangerous stimulation and exalting reaction incident to the adoption of a high tariff or of the collapse
and uncertainty attending the settlement of a different policy. That a practical way exists I have no doubt; that it will ever be adopted depends upon the power for long suffering possessed by the American people. Business waits today for certainty. In a few months we may be in a new Congressional campaign.
Whatever is settled now may be completely torn apart. To keep the tariff in politics means that $55,401 establishments representing $6,324,175,900 invested capital, using $5,158,989,353 worth of materials produced by other industries and putting on the markets $9,370,107,624 worth of goods, must be operated with a degree of uncertainty which affects 4,711,882 employees, whose annual wages amount to $2,282,523,395."

"If the tariff should be laid according to a defined principle agreeable to the common sense of an industrial Nation, it is reasonable to conclude that such minor modifications as trade conditions dictated might be made by expert officials hands without discussing the whole subject from anise seed to yams, at every crossroads from Maine to Texas, and running hot plow shares through every factory enterprise in America."

"I think that all fair minded men will agree that the tariff question should be taken out of politics. Political sagacity, if not political science, should point out
the way, for it is sure to prove a millstone around the neck of both parties and may cause such intolerable suffering and confusion as to make reconstruction party lines
and much social suffering and confusion."

MISS POLLARD WINS.

JUDGMENT AGAINST THE DIS-
HONORABLE WM. C. P.
BRECKINRIDGE.

The Jury Gives the Girl $15,000—But
What Will She Get?—Willie Moves
For a New Trial, and is Still a Democrat.

Judge Wilson finished his argument in the Breckinridge-Pollard trial at half past 3 o'clock Saturday.

Judge Bradley then delivered his charge
to the jury, which retired shortly after 3.
The jurors were not so long in agreeing upon a verdict as was anticipated, and after being out only an hour and twenty-eight minutes returned a judgment in favor of the plaintiff, fixing the damages
at $15,000.

Colonel Breckinridge rose slowly to his feet.

All those who saw his face by this was nearly as white as his beard, but his voice was as clear as usual when he spoke in a hesitating way, saying, "I do not know the practice of this Court, but I wish to give the usual notice of a motion for a new trial."

Miss Pollard was not in the Courtroom,
and her attorneys reported that she did not care to say anything about the verdict.

When a messenger reached her room with the news she exclaimed: "Oh, isn't it good, isn't it good?" and then burst into sobs.

Major Butterworth said: "I don't care
to say anything," and walked dejectedly away toward his office.

That Miss Pollard will not be financially bettered by the result of her case is probable, because it is well understood and has been said on trial that Breckinridge has no property. He has lived up to his income for years, and although his wife has money, it does not seem likely that she will care to expend it to satisfy this judgment.

Notwithstanding the verdict, which was wholly unexpected to him, Breckinridge persists in remaining a candidate for re-nomination.

Will the Ashland District endorse him?
We will see what we will see.

FRANKFORT must be in a bad fix. She wants either Mr. Moody or "Sham" Jones to hold a revival there. What's the matter with having both of the two of 'em.

TARIFF AND POLITICS.

Why They Should Be Separated For
The Nation's Welfare.

At the annual meeting of the Political Science Club in New York the subject was discussed, "Should the Tariff Question Be Taken Out of Politics?" Congressman Joseph C. Hendrix of Brooklyn, who was the principal speaker, discussed it in an elaborate manner. He said in part:
"The suggestion that the tariff question

DEMOCRATS in search of consolation will find little solace at Fort Worth, Tex., but even that of a rather unsubstantial character, for the "Democratic ticket was elected by reduced majorities." When even the Texas Democracy loses its grip it is indeed time to try the danger signal.

DOUBTLESS the Free-trade philosophers who attribute the Pennsylvania coke riots to the McKinley Law will also ascribe the Democratic slaughter in Rhode Island to the appearance of spots on the sun. As an expert in the work of ascertaining original causes the average Free-trader is second only to the genius who discovered that the salty taste of sea water was due to the presence of codfish therein.

SENATOR VOORHIES says the Wilson Bill will save $75,000,000 a year in taxes to the people. That is a little over $1 per year per capita. The agitation of this Free-trade measure has caused a loss already of at least an average of $50 apiece to the working people of the country. It will take them fifty years under the Wilson Bill to get square with the $50 they have already lost, if the Wilson Bill saves them $1 a year and they have the same wages they had before. Query—What is the use of the Wilson Bill to the average working-man who probably has less than twenty-five years of life before him?

The position which WILLIS BULLOCK of the Hay Trade Journal has presented to Congress opposing the proposed reduction of the duty on hay from $14 a ton to 30 per cent. ad valorem illustrates the indifference of the Bourbon Tariff manipulators to the welfare of American farmers. Such a sweeping reduction would be ruinous, for it is equivalent substantially to cutting down the existing duty to one quarter of its amount. The breaking down of the Protective barriers would be especially disastrous to New York, whose crop of this important product is the largest of any state in the Union, and alone equals in value the entire cotton crop of Texas, the greatest cotton producing state in the Nation. The proposed reduction in the duty on hay would practically give Canadian hay free admission to the American markets. Of late years, particularly since the passage of the McKinley Tariff, Canadian hay has been largely shipped to Europe; but under the Wilson Bill it would be directed to the United States, to the impoverishment of thousands of farmers in the Northern States.

VENGEANCE.

A Colored Brute Strung Up By a Mob of Citizens.

The Frenzied Assaults a White Woman Eighty-One Years of Age.

The Old Lady Gives the Alarm—A Mob Seizes the Negro and Hangs Him to a Tree.

CLEVELAND, O., April 16.—Speedy justice was meted out to a colored felon at Rushsylvania, a small place near Bellefontaine, Sunday night.

The wretch was Seymour Newland, and his victim Mrs. J. J. Knowles, a respectable white woman 81 years of age. She was terribly injured by the Negro. When alone in her house Saturday night Newland entered, and, without a word, assaulted her. He was driven away by the noise he made coming into the bedroom. She started in alarm and attempted to scream. The Negro brutally slapped her across the face, and month and forced her back on her pillow.

She sought desperately, but her strength was soon exhausted. He abused her in the most filthy manner, and left her in a pitiable condition. After she had gone she dragged herself to a neighbor's house and aroused the inmates. She told the story in a few broken sentences, and then sank helplessly on the floor. Without loss of time other folks were aroused. The news of the assault traveled like wildfire, and in a short time nearly the entire population of the village was acquainted with the story, and the search for Newland was begun.

The mob caught Newland a few miles from town, and messengers were at once dispatched for a rope to hang him with. While waiting for the rope Sheriff Salter, who had been called to the scene, and after considerable difficulty, induced the excited citizens to turn the wretch over to him. Newland was taken to a small place called Little Shell, and a strong guard placed outside. The excitement became so intense that the sheriff feared for his life. He called for a militia from Bellefontaine. A company quickly arrived and formed a hollow square around the filthy prisoner. The sight of soldiers so close to the mob, which hung around the vicinity. Loud threats of attack were made by them.

In some manner, one of the mob had succeeded in placing several dynamite bombs beneath the cell in which the Negro was locked, the object being to blow him up. The sheriff, who had prevented the success of this plan to throw the Negro. The fact that the bombs were there was disclosed to the sheriff, and he remained there, yielding to the entreaties of the people he ordered the militia to withdraw, and local guards replaced the armed force.

The crowd was just in the mood for a lynching. About 9:00 o'clock Sunday night they gathered around the fire structure in determined mood. The guards offered no resistance, and after being pushed aside, the building was overturned. The mob, coming from neighboring farms. Ready hands were laid on Newland, who howled with terror, and fought savagely. He knocked down a soldier, and a mob about his neck. Then, with wild yells, the mob dragged him over the ground to a small cottonwood tree some distance away. One of the men seized a limb and the wretch was raised by the neck until he stood erect.

A jury was drawn and a mock trial commenced, but it was promptly terminated, as the mob was too impatient to wait. The doomed Negro kept up an incessant groaning and appealing for mercy, and was only stopped when a sudden jerk he was sent skyward. There he was held until dawn. Newland was an experienced party before being found guilty of an outrage. Mrs. Knowles, Newland's victim, is in a critical condition, and not expected to live.

Dr. Swift Goes to California.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., April 16.—Dr. Lewis Swift, so long associated with the Warner obituary scandal, has returned from Florida, and will make his permanent home on Echo mountain, four miles from Pasadena. Dr. Swift regards this as the best place in the United States for the prosecution of his astronomical work, and believes that there are only two places in the world—one in Mexico and one in South America—that afford superior advantages for observation of the heavens.

Verdict for Madeline.

WASHINGTON, April 16.—Foreman Charles R. Cole, of the circuit court, jury, at 4:45 o'clock Saturday afternoon, announced the verdict for the plaintiff, Madeline Pollard, for $15,000 damages from Congressman W. C. P. Breckinridge, for breaking his contract to marry her, thus ending the exciting Breckinridge-Pollard breach of promise trial. Fifteen ballots were required by the jury for a decision. A motion was made for a new trial.

Lincoln, who died in London, will be the figures in a representation of a mother teaching a boy the history of the war.

Three Thugs to Death.

JANESVILLE, Wis., April 16.—The residence of August Krieger, three miles west of this city, was destroyed by fire Sunday morning, and three of Krieger's daughters, aged 10, 12, and 14, were burned to death. The fire is supposed to have been caused by an explosion of kerosene.

LOST HER HEAD.

While the Bang-Song, Lover of My Boy, a Little Boy Saw On a Young Girl's Head.

HACKENSACK, N. J., April 16.—A shocking and distressing accident occurred at Bridgefield Park at 10 o'clock Sunday evening. Belle Shields, 14 years old, of Bridgefield Park, aged 14 and 14 respectively, were standing in the parlor of Augustus Shields, a police officer, when she was singing the hymn, "Jesus, Lover of My Soul." Peter Duane, aged 14, was also present. He stepped into the parlor of Augustus Shields, and, taking it up, pointed it around the room at different objects. As the song was sung, the girl's head was thrown back, and she fell to the floor as she was uttering the words, "Let me to Thy bosom fly." The boys not more than twelve feet from the girls and the contents of the girl literally tore the top of her head off, killing her instantly. Both of her companions, who were of great consternation followed.

The older Duane is away from home and the lad, horrified at the awful result of his crime, fled. The mother ran more than a mile to the house of his oldest brother, John, who brought him to Hackensack and delivered him to the constable of the sheriff. The occurrence was purely accidental, but John Duane, his brother, admitted that he had fired the gun when he was told to hold it.

KEARSARGE RELICS.

The Logbook, Bell and Memorial Tablet Found on Cayman Island.

WASHINGTON, April 16.—A telegram has been received by the secretary of the navy announcing that Lloyd H. Kearsarge, while cruising in his yacht, the Albatross, accompanied by his wife, had discovered the remains of the ship of the same name, which he found in possession of the islanders the Kearsarge's bell, part of the memorial tablet commemorating the engagement with the Alabama and the logbook of the ship. These are very articles which the state department at Secretary of the Navy, Mr. Taft, notified all American consuls to try and secure, and the two yachtsmen learning of this, went in search of them with completely successful results.

The log book was particularly desired during the court-martial of Commander Kearsarge, and it was now that it is secured the secretary of the navy will probably pass upon the sentence passed by the court-martial. He had an opportunity to examine the books.

Mr. Phoenix was compelled to purchase the relics for $10,000. The articles, which he held them, but it is not known what amount was paid. The articles will be delivered to the navy department on the 15th of the month. New York in the course of a week or two.

MIRACULOUS CURES.

A So-Called Mexican Saint Performing Them in Texas.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., April 16.—There was a decrease in the number of cases of the appearance of Don Pedro Jimenez, the so-called Mexican saint, who is evidently possessed of some strange power by means of which he effected a large number of apparently miraculous cures of chronic affections and diseases of all kinds. Sunday 100 new cures were reported.

Don Pedro gives no medicine, and it is believed by many that he exercises a hypnotic influence on the patients. He does not accept any remuneration for his services, although he has been offered many large sums of money by those whom he has cured. He is surrounded by hundreds of Americans and Mexicans Saturday. In a number of cases the blind have been made to see and the lame to walk by the wonderful man.

Lost an Eye.

BEATRICE, Neb., April 16.—Ralph English, driver of a delivery wagon, was an expert party of a practical joke played upon him by a woman named Frank Sheldon. When English lighted the cigar it exploded in his face, blowing out his eye and badly injuring the other. Sheldon, who is a cigar maker, is said to have made the explosion a practical joke, and he has been placed under arrest.

Mexico and Silver.

CITY OF MEXICO, April 16.—There is no truth in the report that the government is apprehensive of a heavy influx of American silver bars, and intends to immediately place a duty on the entrance of foreign silver. It is not believed that the American government would enter into negotiations for the purchase of American silver, and the matter is not regarded here as serious.

Shot Her Sister.

ST. LOUIS, April 16.—Lulu Williams, aged 15, was shot by her brother, August Williams, in a fight at Thirteenth and Chestnut streets, Sunday night. She fired a pistol at Lu Gardner, but missed her, the ball striking her own sister, Mary, in the head. Mary died on the way to the hospital, and Lulu was arrested.

Senator Vance Dead.

WASHINGTON, April 16.—Senator Vance, of North Carolina, died at his home, 1720 Massachusetts avenue, this city, at 10:40 o'clock Sunday night. He had a stroke of apoplexy in the morning. He had been suffering for some time from paralysis and a complication of diseases, but the end was sudden and unexpected.

Fetters in the Fire.

JANESVILLE, Minn., April 16.—At 6 o'clock Sunday morning the residence of August Krieger, three miles west of this city, was destroyed by fire, and three of Krieger's daughters, aged 10, 12, and 14, were burned to death. The fire is supposed to have been caused by an explosion of kerosene.

ARMY OF PEACE.

Trouble Breaks Out in Their Midst, But Coxey is King.

The Once Famous "Unknown" is Dismissed From the Commonweal.

The Congo Also Extended to Jesse A. Coxey, Son of the Commander—Carl Brown Now Has Entire Control of the Army—Indians' Identity.

CUMBERLAND, Md., April 16.—The once famous "Unknown" of the Congo army, who had been dismissed from the commonweal, and likewise of his honors as a member of the commonweal. The Congo was extended to Jesse A. Coxey, son of the commander of the famous force. Sunday night Carl Brown, the deposed leader of Saturday, has entire charge of the army. The main body is at Cumberland, and the other is at food at the expense of Cumberland citizens. A decided revolution of the popular feeling in favor of the "Unknown" was announced Sunday morning.

J. S. Coxey, the financial backer of the movement, returned from the Congo Sunday morning, and immediately began an investigation of the revolt of Saturday evening. His conference with Brown was in private, and he refused to make any other statement than that they had foreseen, by the power they have in reorganized the Congo, with the aid of the prophet and foretold, such a schism, and were prepared to deal with it as the conditions demanded. After seeing Brown, Coxey returned to his home. Coxey were called in, and notified that they grossly violated the regulations of the commonweal, and were discharged.

An unseemly wrangle followed, during which Brown and the "Unknown" reviled each other as agitators, fakirs, and fools. The Congo army, known as the "Unknown," was in command of the right wing of the army. Transferred with his corps to the Congo army, he was assigned to a division. He succeeded in Gen. Hester's command, and he was in command of the division. He was in command of the division. He was in command of the division.

Mr. Coxey next took the stump, and spoke at length on the necessity of peace, showing determination only in the right to return to the Congo. He has to go, and if the men wanted to be able by him they could, but he (Coxey) would not allow any of the Congo army to go away to go away. This decision was accepted by the men without a murmur, and the Unknown and Jesse left camp.

The "Unknown" was made by the man himself. He is E. P. Pizarro, of St. Louis, Mo., who was in the Congo army, and he was in the Congo army. He was in the Congo army. He was in the Congo army.

GEN. SLOOM DEAD.

The Soldier Praises Away at His Home in Brooklyn, of Pneumonia.

NEW YORK, April 16.—Gen. Henry W. Slocum, aged 100, died at 10 o'clock Saturday morning, at his home, No. 465 Clinton avenue, Brooklyn, of pneumonia. Gen. Slocum had been only a few days in bed, and was not expected. Just before 6 o'clock Friday night he suddenly began to shiver, and Dr. Bellows, a physician, who had been called to his home, was summoned. Dr. Bellows saw at once the serious condition of his patient. He called Dr. Westbrook in consultation. They succeeded in arresting Gen. Slocum's relapse, and he was thought to be getting better. At 10 o'clock, however, he suddenly grew worse, and his family was summoned to his bedside to await the end.

At 11 o'clock Gen. Slocum fell into a sleep which continued three-quarters of an hour. A few minutes before he died he awoke and spoke to his family. He was perfectly conscious of his approaching end, and died a painless death. The house was closed immediately, the body was placed in a coffin, and the funeral was held at 2 o'clock Saturday morning.

Gen. Slocum was born at Pompey, Ontario county, N. Y., September 21, 1827. He was graduated from the United States Military Academy at West Point, N. Y., in 1847. He was assigned to the 1st Artillery, and served in the Mexican war. He was promoted to major in 1854 when he returned from the army. On the outbreak of the Civil war he was appointed to the 11th New York Cavalry, and served in the 11th New York Cavalry. He was promoted to lieutenant colonel in 1862, and to colonel in 1863. He was promoted to major general in 1864, and to lieutenant general in 1865. He was promoted to full general in 1866.

He was in command of the 11th New York Cavalry during the battle of Gettysburg, and was promoted to lieutenant general in 1865. He was promoted to full general in 1866. BOATMAN'S PLAN.

Members of Congress to Be Put in Contempt—But Not First.

WASHINGTON, April 16.—Representative Boatner, of Louisiana, who has been absent from this city with the intention of attending the Democratic caucus, did not reach here in time to attend the caucus Friday. On learning of the action taken he expressed regret that he had not been able to attend. He had in fact contemplated offering at the first opportunity a rule requiring that members of Congress be put in contempt if they failed to appear at the caucus. The rule, if enforced, already provided for in this rule filibustering would be impossible after a single attempt had been made. The minority might have been able to make motions, but they could not leave enough to call for the ayes and nays nor conduct other obstructive tactics. The rule, if enforced, would have put into contempt would be then under the control of the house, which could remove the disability without and in whatever manner it saw fit.

Representative Boatner will attempt to have his rule considered by the committee before it makes a report.

A TRAIN OF TRAGEDIES.

Kentucky Stockmen the Victims—Death at a Funeral.

HARRISBURG, Ky., April 16.—A paucity of stockmen, by the sudden and tragic death of Wm. Russell, he was attending the funeral of Spire P. H. Best, who was killed by a train of freight cars, which was being lowered into the grave. Russell began to gasp and before any assistance could be rendered he died. The cause of death was a heart attack. The train was carrying a large number of stock, and the accident was a great loss to the community.

Otto Gustafson Killed.

VALPARAISO, Ind., April 16.—Saturday night Otto Gustafson, a prominent young man of Toledo, Ohio, was killed by a train of freight cars, which was being lowered into the grave. The cause of death was a heart attack. The train was carrying a large number of stock, and the accident was a great loss to the community.

De L. C. Ford Paralyzed.

ANN ARBOR, Mich., April 16.—The venerable Dr. L. C. Ford, who has been a member of the Michigan department of the University of Michigan for more than forty years, was stricken with apoplexy and lies in a critical condition at his home in Ann Arbor.

During the month of March 300 oil wells were drilled in Ohio, of which 25 were dry. The output was 5,400 barrels per day.

SELF-DEFENSE.

Warden Patton Shoots Unruly Convict Houston.

The Prisoner Made a Desperate Attempt on the Officer's Life.

Houston Had Been Tied Every Seven Days, and Prisoner Ordered Him Flogged—After His Attempt to Kill the Warden.

JEFFERSONVILLE, Ind., April 16.—A convict named Houston, from Terre Haute, Indiana, made a desperate attempt to murder Warden James H. Patton, of Prison House No. 1, at Jeffersonville, Ind., Saturday morning. Houston was tied every seven days, and was ordered to be flogged. He made a desperate attempt to kill the warden, but was stopped by the warden's men. Houston was then taken to the hospital, and the warden was severely wounded.

When the facts were laid before Warden Patton, Saturday morning, Houston was called and ordered to be taken up to the floor of his cell. He again demonstrated his brutal instincts by making a murderous assault upon the warden's men. Houston was then taken to the hospital, and the warden was severely wounded.

While on the way to the hospital, in charge of Deputy Warden Howard and a constable, Houston made an attempt upon the constable's life with his right fist, and it is said, struck him a blow, after which the desperate criminal was taken to the hospital. Houston is the convict who appeared at the trial of the convict Houston, who was sentenced to life imprisonment for the murder of a woman. Houston was then taken to the hospital, and the warden was severely wounded.

Persons who are subject to attacks of bilious colic can almost invariably tell, by their feelings, when to expect an attack. If Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is taken as soon as these symptoms appear, they can ward off the disease. Such persons should always keep the remedy at hand, ready for immediate use when needed. Two or three doses of it at the right time will save them much suffering. For sale by Theo. Power, Druggist.

My wife was confined to her bed for over two months with a very severe attack of rheumatism. We could get nothing that would afford her any relief, and as a last resort gave Chamberlain's Pain Balm a trial. To our great surprise she began to improve after the first application, and by using it regularly she was soon able to get up and attend to her house work. E. H. Johnson of C. J. Knutson & Co., Kensington, Minn. Fifty cent bottles for sale by Theo. Power, Druggist.

Notice to Dog Owners. The police officers will be out with shagbark hounds, and will continue from day to day, until all dogs having no tags are killed. By order W. H. Cox, Mayor.
